Reference No. 37 of 1967

between

The Workmen and the Management of
M/s Technological Institute of Textiles, Bhiwani.

Present: Shri B. P. Ghaiye for the Management.
Shri Sagar Ram Gupta for the Workmen.

PART AWARD

An industrial dispute having come into existence between the workmen and the management of M/s Technological Institute of Textiles, Bhiwani over the following matters, the same was referred for adjudication to this tribunal under clause (d) of sub-section 1 of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947,—vide Haryana Government Notification No. 102-SF-3Lab-67/4692, dated 7th March, 1967:—

- (1) Whether the workmen are entitled to the grant of any additional bonus for the year 1964-65? If so, what should be the quantum of additional bonus and the condition of its payment?
- (2) Whether the workmen are entitled to extra wages for 15th August, 1965? If so, with what details?

On receipt of the reference in this tribunal, usual notices were issued to the parties and in response to the same the workmen filed their statement of claims and the management filed their written statement to the same. The workmen of the parties gave rise to 3 issues for consideration as under:—

- (1) Whether the reference is incompetent for the reasons given in preliminary objections 1, 2 and 3 in the written statement of the management?
- (2) Whether the workmen are entitled to the grant of any additional bonus for the year 1964-65? If so, what should be the quantum of additional bonus and the condition of its payment?
- (3) Whether the workmen are entitled to extra wages for 15th August, 1965? If so, with what details?

The above issues were framed on 28th of April, 1967 and parties were directed to produce their evidence in respect of the same.

Issue No. 1 is purely legal and parties have not produced any evidence in respect of the same. Evidence on issue No. 3 has concluded but evidence on issue No. 2 has not yet closed because of the fact that some of the records of the management were in the meantime seized by the C.B.I. and the management has not been able to get them back. Both the parties desired on the last hearing that item No. 1 of the dispute may be decided later on but that an award may be given in respect of item No. 2 of the dispute and that the said award may be treated as a part award in this reference. Both the parties have addressed their arguments to me on issues No. 1 and 3 and my findings on the said issues are as under :—

Issue No. 1—

Three preliminary objections have been taken by the management in their written statement. One of them is that the workmen have claimed 20 per cent bonus without giving any particulars and that the said claim is, therefore, vague and beyond the jurisdiction of the Tribunal. Second objection is that the second term of reference in respect of extra wages for the 15th August, 1965 cannot be adjudicated because what the workmen actually claim is compensation and not wages. The third objection is really clarification of the second and the contention raised by the management is that since the reference order is for payment of extra wages for the 15th August, 1965 and not for payment of wages for the other weekly off day, the demand is outside the terms of reference as framed. Issue No. 1 covers all these three objections. After giving my careful consideration I feel that none of them has any force. The workmen have clearly said in their statement of claims as also in the demand notice that the management had earned huge profits in the year in question and that the workmen were entitled to the maximum bonus at the rate of 20 per cent for the said year. No other details need be given by the workmen and I entirely fail to understand how the claim of the workmen can be termed as vague and indefinite. Regarding objection No. 2 and 3, these are hyper technical. With regard to these objections it is urged by the management that the term of reference is in respect of extra wages for the 15th of August, 1965 and since the term 'Wage' means 'remuneration for work done' and since it is admitted that the workmen did not do any work on the 15th August, 1965 the claim for wages for that date is not entertainable. This contention has no force whatever. The workmen in substance claim their wages for the weekly rest day in the week commencing with the 12th of August, 1965 and ending with the 18th of August, 1965. Their case is that since 15th August, 1965 was to be a National and Festival Holiday the management should pay wages for that day on the short ground that the said day could not be substituted for the weekly rest day. This issue is decided against the management.

Issues No. 3—

It is not denied by the management that they have fixed a weekly rest day for each of their workmen and have specified the same on the attendance card of each of them and also on the Wage Register maintained by them. Obviously the management could not have changed the weekly rest day so as to deprive the workmen of their right to have the 15th August as National and Festival paid holiday. The action of the management did deprive the workmen of their wages for the 15th August, 1965 because instead of treating it as a paid National and Festival holiday, they turned it into the weekly rest day for all the workmen. As a result of treating 15th of August, 1965 as the weekly rest day, some of the workmen got their weekly rest after four days and some others got the same after 11 or 12 days. A workman who had his weekly rest on the 11th August, 1965 got it again on 15th of August, 1965 but did not get the next rest till the 25th of August, because of the fact that 13th August which was to be rest day for him was not allowed to him as such. I am definitely of the opinion that the management was not justified in treating the 15th August, 1965 as the weekly rest day and in depriving the workmen of their weekly rest days as previously fixed for each of them. The workmen are in my opinion entitled to one day's extra wages for the 15th of August, 1965.

For the reasons given above the management is directed to pay one day's extra wages for that date to all their workmen excepting those who were otherwise to have their weekly rest on Sunday, the 15th of August, 1965.

No order as to costs.
